

Transporting ourselves into new tomorrows

If Cook Strait becomes non-navigable due to climate change effects what happens to NZTA's outcomes ?

With people willing to take more risk to meet their mobility needs are we wrong to invest in safer transportation?

Is the future personal sky hover transport system part of NZTA or CAA planning responsibility ?

Will a non liquid fuelled transport system be able to use road network ?